BRABUS[®] MARINE

The cutting-edge alliance made between Axopar Boats and famous German automotive tuning company and car manufacturer, BRABUS evolves into deeper collaboration and future ventures.

Focusing upon premium products for global markets - and with strong ambitions to become one of the world's most iconic, Top 10 luxury boat building brands in the future - BRABUS Marine will be devoted to building, developing and expanding exciting new luxury day-boats under the 'Shadow' brand name.

Utilizing the logical philosophy of sharing the same core design principles and development platform for two distinct boat brands makes financial and commercial sense.

Next generation BRABUS Marine and Axopar Boats will be jointly developed, and built utilizing BRABUS' significant automotive industry experience fused together with Axopar Boat's significant marine experience.

Combining the two areas of expertise will bring about innovative solutions and original-thinking that will define the DNA behind every BRABUS Marine product.
